

Northwest Symphony Orchestra Annual Fundraiser

“An interest in and love of classical music is easiest when fostered early in a child’s life. We believe that to create lifelong music lovers and appreciative supporters of the arts requires an early introduction that must be nurtured consistently through to adulthood. As NWSO musicians, we see ourselves as advocates for this important outreach work.”

Your contribution helps support...

- The performance and promotion of music by northwest composers.
- Public education in the full spectrum of classical music.
- Music education in the Highline School District and surrounding communities, an area underserved by the arts.
- The Symphony for Students program, providing an opportunity for students to attend a live concert.

The Northwest Symphony Orchestra is a nonprofit 501(c)(3) arts organization with partial support by corporate gift matching programs.
